

Cost of accommodation

Aged care home financial information and key features statement snapshot

1. Basic daily fee

The basic daily fee is payable by all residents. It is currently $63.82 per day, and is indexed by the Commonwealth government each March and September.

2. Means tested fee

The Means Tested fee is a fee payable by some residents. It is calculated by the Commonwealth government based on both your income and assets. The fee is capped at the means-tested amount or the cost of your care, or $34,174 per annum, whichever is the lesser. The lifetime cap is $82,018.

The fee is reviewed each quarter by the Commonwealth, based on income and asset information held by Centrelink or Veterans' Affairs. Although this fee is collected by Bapcare it is paid to the Commonwealth.

For your Means Tested fee to be calculated correctly, please complete a Permanent Residential Aged Care – Request for a Combined Asset and Income Assessment form (#SA457), available from Centrelink. It is not compulsory to complete this form, but if you do not you might be asked to pay the full cost of your care.

You will be advised of the correct Means Tested fee by the Commonwealth shortly after your admission. If we do not have sufficient information at admission to calculate the Means Tested fee, we may charge an estimated fee in the interim.

PAYMENT EXAMPLES – WATTLE ROOM

3. Accommodation payment

All Wattle suites at Brookview have a nominal price of $395,000 per room. You will only be asked to pay this if you can afford it.

Residents can choose to make this payment one of three ways:

1. A Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD). You can pay the room price in full as a lump sum amount. This amount is held by the home for the duration of your residency, and is fully refundable to you or to your estate, unless you choose to have any of your fees and charges deducted from the RAD.
2. A Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP). You can choose to not pay the lump sum amount, but a daily interest equivalent amount added to your monthly fees. Please see below for examples of this payment method.
3. A combination of RAD and DAP. You can pay any portion of the RAD lump sum amount, and pay the remaining balance as a DAP equivalent. Please see below for examples of this payment method.

You can elect to pay the DAP as an additional fee each month, or to have it deducted from a RAD lump sum if you are making a combination payment. If deducted from the lump sum, this will reduce the RAD refund paid to you or to your estate. If the DAP or other fees are deducted from the RAD lump sum, you will be levied an additional interest charge. Please see below for examples of this payment method.

Any Accommodation Payment is due at the date of admission. If you choose to pay the RAD after admission, you will be charged interest on any unpaid amount. The interest rate is currently 8.17% per annum. The DAP is calculated using the same interest rate.

4. Living Well Additions

The Living Well Additions package offers premium additional meals & dining, lifestyle, administration and technology services packaged at an affordable $10.00 per day. Refer to the brochure or your resident agreement for additional details. The fee may differ for certain residents.

Supported or Low Means

If your combined income and assets are below the current limits specified by the Commonwealth that you qualify as a supported or low means resident, the accommodation payment is calculated by Services Australia. The government will review this quarterly according to any changes in your financial situation. This amount is called an Accommodation Contribution. It is possible that this amount may be more than the advertised room rate.

You must provide a current income and asset assessment for residential aged care that shows your eligibility for an Accommodation Contribution. Otherwise you will be asked to pay the advertised rate.
